HERSCHEL HOSTING: THE ANNUAL INDEPENDENT SCHOOLS SPORTS COORDINATORS CONFERENCE 2019

Please note that our Sports department is hosting and running the above annual conference and will be off site from Monday – Friday this coming week. All P.E. lessons and sports practices will continue as per the schedule on Page 2. The only sports that are affected are on Wednesday: Grade 2 Long Day is cancelled as well as Junior Cross Country and Netball matches that have been postponed due to the fact that delegates will be on site that afternoon (Wed) attending different electives & practical sessions in different venues. The Open A & B Hockey matches vs Wynberg on Thursday have also been postponed. We will be able to answer any URGENT mails during this time otherwise please direct any URGENT queries to your Class Reps who will pass them onto the Head of Class Reps who can contact us via cell phone, alternatively please contact the office who can also make contact with us.

The week that was

Cross Country Race @ Sun Valley

Our Cross Country girls had another great league race on Friday continuing their strong performances whilst having fun and demonstrating camaraderie. Well done, girls!

The Herschel U13A Hockey team took part in the annual Kenridge Hockey tournament. It was an exciting morning with such a high standard of Hockey. The team played some outstanding Hockey placing 3rd, losing out on 2nd place due to goal difference and despite beating eventual winners Kenridge 2 – 0 earlier in the morning. Well done, girls!

Gabby du Toit won an award for Sportsmanship.
