Dramatic Arts Teacher (IEB)

to commence duties in January 2023

Herschel Girls School has adopted the IEB NSC qualification effective 01 January 2022 and is looking for an innovative and progressive teacher who seeks the opportunity to be part of a dynamic and excellent staff and school.

The successful applicant will be a suitably qualified teacher and the following are essential:

- A demonstrable passion for and expert experience in teaching Dramatic Arts up to Grade 12
- A willingness to work within the values and ethos of the school and a commitment to involve oneself in the broader extramural programme on offer at the school
- Be fully committed to the school's transformation, equity and belonging strategic objectives in support of an equitable, inclusive and safe school environment for all
- Be expected to be supportive of the Christian Anglican ethos of the School
- An ability to harness and apply their experience and skills in the development of the Dramatic Arts Electives offered in Grade 8 and 9
- Theatre-making experience paired with a broad range of performance and theatrical skills, and the ability and commitment to produce and direct productions and be involved in the school's broad extramural cultural programme
- The ability to integrate technology with confidence and flair to support a blended learning environment which engages students
- The ability to explore a rapidly changing educational landscape and being open to ongoing personal and professional development to support change
- A proven ability to establish a dynamic learning environment and to nurture curiosity and intellectual agility through the advancement of a relevant and rich curriculum
- Excellent relational skills which allow for the development of a progressive, safe, inclusive, exciting teaching environment

- The skills and care required to be a tutor within the House system which we operate at Herschel. This involves active engagement with a small group of students across the grades, having oversight of their wellbeing and their academic progress
- Healthy self-awareness and a well-developed sense of duty of care towards one's students and one's colleagues, with a focus on the developing of accountability, integrity, trust and collaboration within both spaces
- An understanding and appreciation of Girls' Education and the nuances applicable to support the educational premise of nurturing confident, independent, caring, resolute and inspiring young women
- Excellent administrative, communication and organisational skills
- To hold at heart the school's tagline of "learning to make a difference" for oneself and for the students in one's care
