HERSCHEL
GIRLS SCHOOL

Herschel Girls School, founded in 1922, situated in Claremont Cape Town, is an inclusive independent Anglican school for girls from Pre-Nursery to Grade 12 which welcomes pupils and staff from diverse cultural backgrounds.

Herschel is committed to transformation and is an equal opportunity, affirmative action employer that gives preference, where appropriate in accordance with its Employment Equity Plan, to candidates from the designated groups. The School reserves the right not to make an appointment. Failure to meet the requirements of the advertised post will result in applicants automatically disqualifying themselves from consideration. Please note only short-listed candidates will be contacted.

Herschel Girls Senior School seeks to appoint an
to commence duties in July 2026

Herschel Girls School follows the IEB NSC qualification and is looking for an innovative and progressive teacher who seeks the opportunity to be part of a dynamic and excellent staff and school.

The successful applicant will be a suitably qualified teacher in her/his field. The following criteria are essential:

- A demonstrable passion for teaching Afrikaans up to and including Grade 12. Experience in the IEB is an advantage.
- A proven ability to establish a dynamic learning environment in the classroom and to design a rich and relevant curriculum and lessons that nurture curiosity and intellectual agility.
- The ability to integrate technology with confidence and flair to support a blended learning environment that engages students.
- Excellent relational skills, which allow for the development of a progressive, safe, inclusive, and exciting teaching environment.
- Healthy self-awareness and a well-developed sense of duty of care towards one's students and one's colleagues.
- An understanding and appreciation of girls' education and the nuances applicable to support the educational premise of nurturing confident, independent, caring, resolute, and inspiring young women.
- The ability to explore a rapidly changing educational landscape with an openness and eagerness for ongoing professional and personal development to support change.
- Excellent administrative, communication and organisational skills.

- The skills and care required to be a Tutor within the House system, which we operate at Herschel. This involves active engagement with a small group of students across the grades, having oversight of their well-being and their academic progress.
- A willingness to work within the values and ethos of the School and a commitment to involve oneself in the broader extramural programme on offer at the School.
- To hold at heart the School's tagline of "leading the education of girls into a future of limitless possibilities" for oneself and for the pupils in one's care.
- To be fully committed to the School's transformation, equity, and belonging strategic objectives in support of an equitable and safe school environment for all.
- To be supportive of the Christian Anglican ethos of the School.
